

Resident Permit & Settlement Law (RPS01)

Act No. 0001
March 29th 2026
Main Author: Councillor Snowclimb

Preamble

This Act establishes the Resident Permit System of Arx for foreigners and new friends, defining the rights, responsibilities, and limitations of Residents within Arxian territory. This Act shall supersede and replace any prior law governing “residency” as a path to citizenship.

Definitions of Terms

- a. Resident - a foreigner or new-friend granted permission to live and build within designated Resident Zones of Arx. A Resident is not, by default, an Arxian citizen.
- b. Citizen - a full Arxian member recognised under the Constitution
- c. Praetor - a senior trusted member of the state and government.
- d. Resident Permit - the authorisation granted to a Resident to settle, build, and hold a plot within Arx.
- e. Resident Namelayer (Arx-R) - the namelayer group under which Residents should reinforce and claim permitted builds.
- f. Citizen Namelayer (Arx-C) - the namelayer under which Citizens reinforce and claim Citizen Builds
- g. Recruitment Ticket - the official Discord-based record of a Resident’s entry and Resident Permit status using Roles and Tickets.
- h. Trusted Citizen (Appointment) - a Citizen formally appointed to increased operational responsibility within a Department or state program. This is an appointment, not a separate class of Citizenship.

Article 1. Purpose and Scope

- a. The Resident Permit system exists to:
  - i. Support recruitment and onboarding
  - ii. Allow foreigners to contribute through public projects
  - iii. Protect Arxian security and property by clearly separating permissions and access.
- b. This act applies to all Residents within Arxian territory and to Citizens/Praetors handling recruitment and settlement administration.

Article 2. Granting of Resident Permits

- a. A Resident Permit may be granted to a foreigner/newfriend upon:
  - i. Completion of a Recruitment Ticket within the Arx Recruitment Channels; and
  - ii. Approval by any of the following authorities:
    - 1. A Councillor
    - 2. A Praetor
    - 3. A Council-appointed recruitment officer
- b. A Recruitment Ticket must record at minimum:
  - i. Resident IGN,

- ii. Date of Acceptance
- iii. Plot Assignment (if any)
- iv. Any special permissions or restrictions granted to the resident.

Article 3. Resident Plots and Settlement Rights

- a. Upon receiving a Resident Permit, a Resident may be granted a plot in a designated Resident settlement zone.
- b. Resident Plots are held under the Resident Namelayer (Arx-R) only.
- c. The state reserves the right to deny, relocate, resize or revoke a Resident plot within reason where required for:
  - i. Public infrastructure
  - ii. Zoning enforcement
  - iii. National Security
- d. Residents may not claim plots or structures under the Citizen Namelayer (Arx-C) unless explicitly authorised by a Praetor or Councillor.

Article 4. Building and Reinforcement Rules for Residents

- a. Residents may build within:
  - i. Their assigned Resident plot
  - ii. Designated public project areas authorised by the state.
- b. Residents must reinforce all their structures under Resident NL excluding the following which can be done under a Personal NL of choice:
  - i. Doorways (E.g Doors, Trapdoors, etc)
  - ii. Containers (E.g Chests, Barrels, etc)
- c. Residents may not reinforce under Citizen Namelayer (Arx-C) except with written permission from Praetor or Councillor.
- d. The state may impose additional build palette, height, or aesthetic requirements within designated city limits in accordance with the City Code / NBCA (National Building Code of Arx),

Article 5. Resident Responsibilities and Restrictions

- a. Residents must:
  - i. Follow Arx laws and server rules;
  - ii. Respect claims, builds, and the properties of others;
  - iii. Comply with instructions from authorised officials during incidents;
  - iv. Maintain reasonable conduct in public spaces.
- b. Residents shall not:
  - i. Access restricted areas (vaults, bunker, sensitive infrastructure) without explicit escort or permission;
  - ii. Receive access to government storage or strategic reserves unless authorised;
  - iii. Represent Arx in diplomatic matters;
  - iv. Hold internal government roles;
  - v. Be granted sensitive permissions by default.

Article 6. Inactivity, Suspension, and Revocation

- a. The state may suspend a Resident Permit if a Resident is inactive without notice for two (2) weeks.

Technocratic State of Arx

Central Council

Philippi City, Technocratic State of Arx, Karydian continent, -9430, 230

---

- b. The state may cancel a Resident Permit and reclaim any Resident plot if a Resident is inactive without notice for four (4) weeks.
- c. A Resident Permit may be revoked immediately for:
  - i. Serious criminal acts
  - ii. Repeated violation of state policy
  - iii. Actions that endanger national security
- d. Upon revocation, the state may:
  - i. Remove settlement rights
  - ii. Reclaim the plot
  - iii. Enforce land bans or other penalties as provided by law.

Article 7. Appeals and Review

- a. A resident whose permit is revoked may submit an appeal through the Justice process.
- b. Appeals may be denied where evidence indicates immediate risk to national security or public safety.
- c. The reviewing authority may impose conditions for reinstatement, including sponsorship, probation, or restricted permissions.

Article 8. Relationship to Citizenship

- a. A Resident Permit does not guarantee citizenship.
- b. Citizenship may be granted by separate procedure and approval, at the discretion of the state.
- c. Any existing processes that describe residency as an automatic time-based path to citizenship are hereby void and replaced by this Act and subsequent citizenship procedures.
- d. A Resident may apply for Citizenship at any time by submitting a Citizenship Ticket, including a summary of their activity and contributions since joining.
- e. Eligibility for Citizenship may be demonstrated by any of the following:
  - i. Continued presence and activity over a reasonable period;
  - ii. Completion of verified public tasks as defined by state programs
  - iii. Sponsorship by a Trusted Citizen or Praetor.
- f. Approval remains discretionary and may be denied for any cause.
