

Constitution of the Technocratic State of Arx

This document is modeled off of the real-life 1987 constitution of the Republic of the Philippines. Big parts were taken in order to save time and sanity for me. All credit to the ones who wrote the original document.

- AetherStarborn, Founder of Arx

ARTICLE 1: PREAMBLE

The founder of this nation, with the aid of Oup, crafts this constitution with his hopes and dreams for the betterment of the country and its people. To build and develop the west continent economically, to be a shining beacon of progress in the world, and to be a good example for every person, do ordain and promulgate this Constitution.

ARTICLE 2: TERRITORY OF THE STATE

The territory of the nation of Arx comprises the terrestrial, aquatic, aerial, and nether domains located within its borders. This includes territories that are owned or occupied by Arx no matter how far away from the mainland. Arx has jurisdiction and sovereignty over these areas, including the subsurface, the seabed, and the waters internally within its border regardless of size and dimension.

ARTICLE 3: PRINCIPLES

SECTION A. The nation of Arx is a Technocratic state. The state is led by the Central Council that serves the betterment of the citizens within the nation at all times. The Central Council has all government authority over the nation.

SECTION B. The nation of Arx shall adopt any widely accepted international laws and work with other nations that adheres to these same policies.

SECTION C. The Arx Defense Forces are the protectors of the people and the State. Their goal is to secure the sovereignty of the State and the integrity of the territory.

SECTION D. The prime duty of the Central Council is to serve and protect the nation and its inhabitants. The Central Council can call upon its citizens to defend the State.

SECTION E. The nation of Arx will maintain peace and order, the protection of life, liberty, and property, and the promotion of general welfare for the enjoyment of all that lives within its borders.

ARTICLE 4: BILL OF RIGHTS

SECTION A. No person shall be denied life, liberty, or property without the due process of the law, nor will any person be deprived of protection by these laws.

SECTION B. There shall be no unreasonable searches or seizures of external and internal properties or ownership by the Central Council against any person, except when a search warrant or warrant of arrest is presented which is only conducted under probable cause that is determined by the majority of the Central Council after proper examination of the complainant and witnesses that may come forward, and it should detail the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized.

SECTION C.

- I. Any private communication, verbal or non-verbal, and any correspondence shall be inviolable except upon the lawful order of the Central Council, or when public safety or order is on the line.
- II. All evidence obtained while in violation of this or of section 2 shall be inadmissible for any purpose in any court proceeding.

SECTION D. The freedom of speech, of expression, of the press, or the right of the people to protest are the right of any person and shall not be forbidden.

SECTION E. The right of an individual to choose where to live and to change one's place of residence shall not be impaired except upon the lawful order of the Central Council.

SECTION F. The right to travel shall not be denied from any person except in the interest of national security or public safety.

SECTION G. The people have the right to transparency of information on the matters of public concern, all access to official records, documents, and papers that relate to official orders, transactions, and decisions are allowed to be viewed by the public except with concerns relating to national security or public safety.

SECTION H. The right to form law abiding unions, societies, and associations by those employed in both private and public sectors shall not be forbade

SECTION I. Private property shall not be taken by the Central Council without proper compensation

SECTION J. No law shall impair the obligation of contracts.

SECTION K. Any person has the right to have free access to the legal system to seek justice, regardless of financial status.

SECTION L.

- I. Any person being investigated for a crime has the right to be informed of his right to remain silent and to have a competent and independent counsel preferably by his own choice. If the person cannot afford such counsel, the Central Council must provide him one. These rights cannot be relinquished except in writing and in the presence of counsel.
- II. No torture, force, violence, threat, intimidation, or any other means which vitiate the free will shall be used against him. Secret detention places, solitary, incommunicado, or other similar forms of detention are prohibited.
- III. Any confession or admission obtained in violation of this or Section 18 hereof shall be inadmissible in evidence against him.
- IV. The law shall provide for penal and civil sanctions for violations of this Section as well as compensation to the rehabilitation of victims of torture or similar practices.

Technocratic State of Arx

Central Council

Philippi City, Technocratic State of Arx, Karydian continent, -9430, 230

SECTION M. All persons, except those charged with offenses punishable by perla perpetua when evidence of guilt is strong, shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, or be released on recognizance as may be provided by law. The right to bail shall not be impaired even when the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus is suspended. Excessive bail shall not be required.

SECTION N.

- I. No person shall be held to answer for a criminal offense without due process of law and shall be presumed innocent until proven guilty.
- II. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall be presumed innocent until the contrary is proved, and shall enjoy the right to be heard by himself and counsel, to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation against him, to have a speedy, impartial, and public trial, to meet the witnesses face to face, and to have compulsory process to secure the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence in his behalf. However, after arraignment, trial may proceed notwithstanding the absence of the accused: Provided, that he has been duly notified and his failure to appear is unjustifiable.

SECTION O. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended except in cases of invasion or rebellion, when the public safety requires it.

SECTION P.

- I. No person shall be detained solely by reason of his political beliefs and aspirations.
- II. No involuntary servitude in any form shall exist except as a punishment for a crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted.

SECTION Q. All persons shall have the right to a speedy disposition of their cases before the Central Council.

SECTION R. No person shall be compelled to be a witness against himself.

SECTION S.

- I. Excessive fines shall not be imposed, nor cruel, degrading or inhuman punishment inflicted. Neither shall perla perpetua be imposed, unless, for compelling reasons involving high crimes, the Central Council hereafter provides for it.
- II. The employment of psychological or degrading punishment against any prisoner or detainee shall be dealt with by law.

SECTION T. No person shall be imprisoned for debt or non-payment of a poll tax.

SECTION U. No person shall be twice put in jeopardy of punishment for the same offense. If an act is punished by a law and an ordinance, conviction or acquittal under either shall constitute a bar to another prosecution for the same act.

SECTION V. No ex post facto law or bill of attainder shall be enacted.

ARTICLE 5: CITIZENSHIP

SECTION A. The following are considered as citizens of the nation of Arx:

- I. Those who are citizens of Arx at the time of the adoption of this Constitution;
- II. Residents who are granted Arxian Citizenship in the manner provided by law, with evidence recorded through official ticketing systems;
- III. A resident can be directly promoted to a Citizen through the lawful citizenship procedure or delegated approval path.

SECTION B. Arxian citizenship may be lost or reacquired in the manner provided by law

SECTION C. Citizens of Arx who marry foreigners shall retain their citizenship, unless by their act or omission they are deemed, under the law, to have renounced it.

SECTION D. Dual allegiance of citizens is allowed

- I. In case a dual citizen is found to be leaking information or goods that may prove inimical to the nation they will be denaturalized and be punished depending on the severity of the situation.

SECTION E. Citizens are authorized to recruit Residents and to assist in providing Namelayer access, provided that all such Residents shall be required to file a ticket within the Arx recruitment channels, and that Resident Permit approval and settlement access shall be granted through the authorized procedure provided by law.

ARTICLE 6: PRAETORSHIP

SECTION A. The following are considered as Praetors of Arx:

- I. Full time Citizens of Arx with no dual allegiance unless otherwise approved by the Central Council and two Current Praetor Endorsements.
- II. Citizens of Arx appointed by the Central council in the manner provided by law.

SECTION B. Praetors are eligible to hold positions of importance in the government.

SECTION C. Praetors may relinquish their duties at will; however, this action necessitates a forfeiture of their government position.

SECTION D. Praetors, duly vested with authority, may promote Residents to Citizens only in accordance with the manner provided by law and any delegation granted by the Central Council.

SECTION E. Praetors with the backing of a Central Council member have the authority to vote against a bad decision by the Central Council through a vote. The vote requires 2/3 of all praetors to agree to veto a decision. They also have the authority to remove a member of the Central Council that is not performing their duties with a vote that also requires a backing of a Central Council member and 2/3 agreement of the praetor population.

ARTICLE 7: SUFFRAGE

SECTION A. Suffrage may be practiced only by citizens of Arx. No literacy, property, or other substantive requirement shall be imposed on the exercise of suffrage.

SECTION B. The Central Council shall provide a system for securing the secrecy and sanctity of the ballot.

SECTION C. The vote shall start at the quarter end of the term cycle and the results will be announced as soon as they are available.

ARTICLE 8: THE CENTRAL COUNCIL

SECTION A. The Central Council shall stand as the supreme deliberative body of the Nation, entrusted with powers of oversight, coordination, and extraordinary judgment. It shall serve as the unifying voice of the commonwealth in matters transcending departmental authority.

SECTION B . The Central Council shall exercise authority in the following domains:

- I. International Diplomacy: Conducting relations with foreign nations, alliances, and external entities in the name of the Nation.
- II. Special Announcements: Issuing proclamations of national importance, including declarations, commemorations, and urgent communications.
- III. Extraordinary Powers: Exercising special prerogatives in times of crisis or necessity, including the temporary assumption of departmental powers.
- IV. Departmental Oversight: Serving as the head of all Departments, ensuring unity of purpose and coordination of national policy.
- V. Major Decisions: Reviewing and approving all decisions of significant consequence before execution, thereby safeguarding the integrity of governance.
- VI. Special Cases: Rendering judgment in exceptional matters not otherwise provided for within departmental jurisdiction.

SECTION C. All Departments and Citizens shall recognize the authority of the Central Council as final in matters of national consequence, save where superseded by constitutional amendment or lawful decree of higher sovereignty.

SECTION D. The Central Council shall embody the collective will of the Nation, ensuring that governance remains balanced between departmental expertise and the overarching unity of the nation.

SECTION E. Those who are elevated to the position of Central Council member shall abide by the constitution and law at all times.

SECTION F. The only way to become a member of the Central Council is to be a Praetor and become nominated by the people through the cyclic nominations. They may not also be a head / manager of a department while holding the council position The most favoured nominee will undergo screening and interviews in order to see whether they are fit to join. There can only be one nominee that will be accepted in the Central Council per cycle, but there can also be none. The process of screening will be fully visible to citizens and praetors at the time of happening and later released to everyone else once completed.

SECTION G. Any member of the Central Council who anticipates a prolonged period of inactivity shall be required either to formally declare such inactivity and designate the temporary allocation of their duties, or to resign their office.

SECTION H. If the Central Council is ever stuck in a decision that they cannot agree on, they are required to provide the whole of the praetors as a "pseudo council member" to break the tie. This will also be done through a voting of the praetors that requires 2/3 of them to make a decision.

ARTICLE 9: DEPARTMENTS

SECTION A. The Nation shall be organized into distinct Departments, each entrusted with authority over its domain of expertise, and each accountable to the Central Council for the execution of major decisions.

SECTION B. Funding from the State shall be apportioned to each Department in accordance with its requisite needs and obligations.

SECTION C. Each Department shall be governed by a Director (Should be a Praetor) responsible for management, proposals, and stewardship of funds, assisted by up to two Managers if required, with membership open to skilled individuals or to trainees seeking to acquire said skills.

SECTION D. Departments shall, when able, conduct classes within Arx University for the instruction of their domain of expertise. Research papers and documentation to put in Arx's Library

SECTION E. The Departments are:

- I. Department of Culture
- II. Department of Civil Works
- III. Department of Defense
- IV. Department of Justice
- V. Department of Economy
- VI. Department of Technology

SECTION F. Any Head of the department who anticipates a prolonged period of inactivity shall be required either to formally declare such inactivity and designate the temporary allocation of their duties, or to resign their office.

ARTICLE 10: DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

SECTION A. Arx Defense Forces shall be composed of a citizen armed force which shall undergo military training and serve as may be provided by law. It shall keep a regular force necessary for the security of the State.

SECTION B.

1. All members of the defense force shall take an oath or affirmation to uphold and defend this Constitution.

2. The Nation shall strengthen the patriotic spirit and nationalist consciousness of the military, and respect for people's rights in the performance of their duty.
3. Professionalism in the defense forces and adequate remuneration and benefits of its members shall be a prime concern of the Nation. The defense forces shall be insulated from partisan politics. No member of the military shall engage, directly or indirectly, in any partisan political activity, except to vote.
4. The officers and men of the regular force of the defense forces shall be recruited proportionately from all provinces and cities as far as practicable.

SECTION C. The Nation recognizes the defense forces to be the police force of the state, which shall be national in scope and civilian in character, to be administered and controlled by a head of the department.

ARTICLE 11: GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION A. The flag of the Technocratic State of Arx shall be white and green, with a shield and gear, as consecrated and honored by the people and recognized by law.

SECTION B. The Central Council may, by law, adopt a new name for the nation, a national anthem, or a national seal, which shall all be truly reflective and symbolic of the ideals, history, and traditions of the people. Such law shall take effect only upon its ratification by the people in a national referendum.

SECTION C. The nation may not be sued without its consent.

SECTION D. The State shall provide immediate and adequate care, benefits, and other forms of assistance to war veterans and veterans of military campaigns.

SECTION E. The State shall protect consumers from trade malpractices and from substandard or hazardous products.

SECTION F. The ownership and management of mass media shall be limited to citizens of Arx, or to corporations, cooperatives or associations, wholly-owned and managed by such citizens.

ARTICLE 12: AMENDMENTS OR REVISIONS

Any amendment to, or revision of, this Constitution may be proposed by a member of the Central Council, upon a vote of three-fourths of all its Members.

This Revised Constitution shall take effect immediately upon its signing by the current members of the Central Council of Arx.
Deus Benedicat Arx!

Evil_Dave
Aziumthal

Aether

Technocratic State of Arx
Central Council
Philippi City, Technocratic State of Arx, Karydian continent, -9430, 230

